Responsibility Pledge

Always to extend the hand and heart of OA to all who share my compulsion, for this I am responsible.

I put my hand in yours...

...and together we can do what we could never do alone! No longer is there a sense of hopelessness, no longer must we each depend upon our own unsteady willpower. We are all together now, reaching out our hands for power and strength greater than ours, and as we join hands, we find love and understanding beyond our wildest dreams.

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference.

Dear Readers,

I hope everyone is enjoying the summer weather and getting a chance to get outside and admire this wonderful city. It is so exciting that things are opening back up, though I have to admit it feels a bit strange sometimes. It's a good thing I have my OA fellowship and a Higher Power to help me through each day.

Yours in Service, actively trying to maintain an Attitude of Gratitude,
Stephanie M.

Thanks to Sophie B. for sending in the following contribution.

I am a traveler. Same since I am abstinent (although there was an 18 month interruption due to Covid).

But before each departure, I feel a certain stress: I will lose my dear routine; my food plan will inevitably change a bit, my schedule too; at the restaurants I will not have the choice I would like; I may not find the best foods in the stores either; I will eat less vegetables, sometimes "yellow" foods; etc.

But I always leave with literature that I read daily; even on the plane or the train I bring some. Every day I can write a text or an email to an OA member. Also, I work on my steps in the morning and evening, just like I do at home.

And I know that my HP is present everywhere, always available. Yet, I find that EVERY trip has gone well, so far.
